A light rope, heavy rope, and long spring are attached to the wall. Properties of transverse waves including wavelength, frequency, phase velocity, superposition, and reflection may be shown.