Beats Generator

A two channel sine wave generator is used to generate a combination of signals at two slightly different frequencies. The output is made audible to the class with a loud-speaker. The signals, along with a Fourier spectrum, may be viewed using a projection oscilloscope.

18, scope in North cabinet

PIRA DCS 3B60.20