Comments about the University of Chicago

This is a page for comments about the University of Chicago

Some disability issues fall outside of the scope of the Office of Student Disability Services (SDS). Have you had something interesting happen to you at the library, Career Advancement, or the Office of Multicultural Affairs which relates to disability? What is your overall sense of the University of Chicago with respect to disability? Please share!

To post use the "add comment" feature below